Mortal Enemy: A Unique Story) is a 2002 Indian Hindi-language supernatural action thriller film directed and produced by Rajkumar Kohli, making it his last film as a director. The film features an ensemble cast, including Sunny Deol, Akshay Kumar, Sunil Shetty, Arshad Warsi, Aftab Shivdasani, Sonu Nigam (in his acting debut), Siddharth Ray, Rajat Bedi, Sharad Kapoor, Aditya Pancholi, Rambha, Pinky Campbell, Kiran Rathod and Raj Babbar with Manisha Koirala and Armaan Kohli as the main antagonists, along with Amrith Puri in a special appearance.[2] The film was Armaan Kohli's comeback film where he was reintroduced with a new name Munish Kohli.[3] This movie received negative reviews and was a disaster at the box office. This movie is also considered one of the worst films ever made. However, over the years, it has achieved cult status for having terrible computer graphics, a poor story, poor direction, and terrible acting.[4] Plot This article's plot summary may be too long or excessively detailed. Karan has a younger step-brother, Vivek, whom he looks after as if he was his own brother. Divya and Vivek study in the same college with their Best- friends group. The group includes: Atul, who is dating Nita and is an atheist, Leader of the Group Bodybuilder and boxer Vijay, who is dating Preeti; Vivek Saxena's Atul's best friend and Karan's Brother Ashok Kejriwal, an extremely wealthy man who is dating Rashmi Prem, who is secretly in love with Rashmi Sharma Victor, a photographer Abdul, who is always looking to crack a joke Rajesh, a womanizer who always lusts for Divya. Divya/Vasundhara, the most beautiful girl in the college. The Blue Ghost Two students named Rajesh and Madan attempt to rape Divya. They are stopped and beaten up by Karan, who takes them to the college's principal, Professor Joseph. He agrees to let the incident go if Divya forgives them, which she later does. However, Rajesh and Madan decide to avenge their humiliation. Soon after, Karan goes to London for work. Divya then begins to have premonitions of a past life and later learns that her name was Vasundhara in a past life, and she was in love with Kapil, a snake with magical powers. Their love life was shattered when they disturbed an angry sage who cursed them with separation until the 21st century. Kapil had to undergo a penance until the 21st century when Vasundhara will be reborn as Divya. He also gained supernatural strength, near-immortality, and the power to impersonate anything as a result of his penance. Under the pretext of inviting Divya to Atul's party, Rajesh imitates the voices of all the guys in the group and tricks her into coming to an abandoned fort earlier than the scheduled time for the party. Divya arrives, where she is brutally raped by Rajesh and Madan, prompting her to kill herself. Divya's friends arrive, and she curses them, thinking that they were involved in the rape. Kapil learns of her death and promises to get his revenge on everyone in the group. As a result, Madan is killed the same night by Kapil. Divya is meanwhile reduced to a soul, who could enter human bodies and control them as per her wish. Rajesh Gets Married His Best Friends Arrive at his Party. On the night of Rajesh's wedding , she enters the soul of his bride and kills him where Atul and everyone finds him. Kapil and Divya decide to kill everyone (everyone whose voice Rajesh had imitated) who coerced her to go to the fort. Kapil impersonates a driver who gives a lift to Victor when his car broke down. After isolating him, Kapil runs over Victor with a motorbike. He goes to the party in Lonavala impersonating Victor and electrocuting Abdul to death. Atul and his friends, with the help of their Principal Joseph, a professor of parapsychology, summon Divya's ghost. They try to reason with Divya, explaining that they had never called her to the fort after she initially declined. However, she refuses to believe their innocence. The principal gives the group necklaces with higher powers and assures them that they cannot be harmed by supernatural forces when they are wearing the necklaces. Atul, an atheist, doesn't believe this. However, when he is attacked by Kapil, he realizes he survived because the necklace was stuck on his hand. Later, Kapil impersonates Nita and badly injures Atul but couldn't kill him. He ends up in a coma. Divya then enters Prem's body and kills his nemesis Ashok. Prem is immediately arrested but could be set free based on Rashmi's false statement, which she is willing to give because she was also in love with Prem. However, Divya enters Rashmi's body and accuses Prem of the murder in court. A distraught Prem is sentenced to be hanged to death by the court. Preeti's father wants her to marry his friend's boxer son Raju instead of Vijay. Her father and Raju collude and decide that Raju will kill Vijay in a boxing match to remove him from the picture. Divya enters Raju's body and almost knocks out Vijay. But the principal notices this and uses his paraphernalia to block Divya's presence. Divya doesn't let Kapil interfere, and Vijay knocks out Raju. Divya stopped Kapil as she wants to be the one killing Vijay since he was the one who informed her of the time to arrive at the fort that night. She exacts her revenge by entering Vijay's body, who jumps off the terrace and dies. The death of all his friends scares Vivek, who calls Karan to return to Mumbai to protect him. Before Karan could arrive home, Kapil impersonates him and stabs Vivek, but couldn't kill him. Kapil escapes and a confused Karan is arrested after Vivek accuses him of the stabbing. Atul comes out of a coma and escapes the hospital with Vivek, who also recovered at the same hospital to kill Kapil. Atul is stabbed by Kapil while trying to save Vivek. Kapil then goes after Vivek. Atul, unable to digest in time and age. The screenplay of the movie is pathetic. A lot of the scenes in the movie evoke laughter where it shouldn't. Just take for example how Akshay Kumar and Sonu Nigam don't die and keep coming back for more. After the worst form of stabbings and bashings, they seem to look almost healthy in the next scene. Dialogues by K.K Singh are disappointing." Box Office Jaani Dushman: Ek Anokhi Kahani opened well at the box office, collecting about ₹13.5 million on its first day. It collected ₹14 million on its second day and ₹12.7 million on its third day, taking its opening weekend collection to ₹40.2 million. However, the negative critical reception led to a drastic fall in the box office collection. Its first-week collection closed at ₹64.7 million. Its collection continued declining, and finally ended up at a domestic nett of ₹107.1 million, resulting in the film being declared as a "Flo" by Box Office India.
